

RICK SNYDER
GOVERNOR

STATE OF MICHIGAN
DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE AND FINANCIAL SERVICES
LANSING

ANNETTE E. FLOOD
DIRECTOR

April 14, 2015

Mortgage Seminar 2015

Once again this year, the Department of Insurance and Financial Services (DIFS) will hold its annual mortgage industry seminar in conjunction with the Michigan Mortgage Lenders Association's (MMLA) 2015 Compliance Seminar. The event will be held on Tuesday, May 5, 2015 at the Crystal Gardens Banquet Center, 5768 East Grand River Avenue, Howell, Michigan. The DIFS afternoon session is free to all attendees and you are not required to be a member of the MMLA to participate.

The DIFS's informational seminar is intended for First and Second Mortgage licensees and registrants, Mortgage Loan Originator licensees, as well as Consumer Financial Services licensees.

Agenda items include and will be presented in the following order:

- Licensing Overview
 - Application Deficiencies
 - Renewal Updates
 - Electronic Bonds
 - Financial Statements
 - Annual Reports

- Examination Overview
 - Exam Preparation Tips
 - Website Overview – DIFS & CFPB
 - TRID Compliance
 - Hot Topics

New for 2015: Do you have a question that you would like answered by DIFS during the seminar? If so, please submit your question to Brenda Gardner at gardnerb@michigan.gov no later than Wednesday, April 29, 2015. DIFS staff will answer questions during the seminar as time permits.

Register on-line at: http://www.mmla.net/events/event_details.asp?id=395962&group. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Consumer Finance at 1-877-999-6442.

This is the only DIFS Mortgage Seminar planned for 2015.

Please do not respond to this e-mail.