

WE DO NOT SELL TO MINORS

DID YOU KNOW: About the penalties for minors

Michigan law does provide for penalties for minors who purchase, attempt to purchase, consume, attempt to consume, possess or attempt to possess alcoholic beverages (MCL 436.1703). The Secretary of State must suspend the driver's license of any minor convicted of using false identification to purchase alcoholic beverages. The police may also write court appearance tickets which may result in the minor being fined or ordered to attend substance abuse classes.
