

Notice of Cessation of Special Education Programs and Services in Response to Revocation of Parental Consent

Districts must have parental consent to provide special education programs and services to eligible students. If a parent revokes consent, the district must provide the parent with notice that the programs and services will stop.

Complete this notice and provide it to parents who have revoked consent for services.

Author: Michigan Department of Education, Office of Special Education

Last updated: 1/6/17

Student Name _____

Student Birth Date _____

Student ID _____

School District _____

This notice is to inform you that the school district has received your revocation of consent for special education programs and services for your child. The school district will take the following action(s):

- Your child will no longer be identified as a child with a disability under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and the Michigan Administrative Rules for Special Education (MARSE);
- Your child's educational placement will be changed to _____ ;
- Special education programs and services for your child will end on _____ .
(date on which programs and services will end)

Once your revocation is effective, your child will no longer be eligible to receive a free appropriate public education (FAPE) as defined under the IDEA and will no longer be entitled to protections received when identified as a child eligible for special education programs or services. The school district will not be required to convene an individualized education program (IEP) team meeting or develop an IEP for your child.

Your child's records will not be amended to remove references to the receipt of special education programs and services.

After your revocation is effective, you may subsequently refer your child for special education programs and services and request an initial evaluation.

Other considerations or additional information:

A copy of the Procedural Safeguards Notice is enclosed with this notice. Until the date the school district ends programs or services (as specified in this notice), your child has procedural protections under the IDEA. These protections are explained in the Procedural Safeguards Notice.

School District Superintendent or Designee Signature

Date

enclosures: Procedural Safeguards Notice

Sources for assistance in understanding Part B of the IDEA