Michigan Child Passenger Safety Technician of the Year

The Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning (OHSP) is pleased to announce the Child Passenger Safety Technician of the Year Award. Each year, OHSP recognizes a Child Passenger Safety Technician (CPST) for his or her outstanding contributions to ensuring children are transported safely in the correct car seat.

Nominated individuals should be:

- certified as a CPST
- committed to providing training and support to parents and caregivers
- devoted to the focus and mission of CPS programs in the state and serve as an example to other CPSTs

AWARDS

The 2015 CPST of the Year will receive a scholarship to attend the 2016 Kidz in Motion Conference. The scholarship will include registration costs, ground travel, hotel, and meal reimbursement.

Four additional nominees will be selected to receive their Safe Kids recertification fee paid for one, two-year cycle, as well as a scholarship (registration only) to attend the Michigan CPS Conference, May 25-26, 2016.
