

EXPLORE YOUR WILD GUIDE ANSWERS

To help teachers learn how to use the Project WILD guide

1. What is Project WILD's Mission?

Answer: To help students learn how to think, not what to think (Intro., p. viii) AND

On website: To provide wildlife-based conservation and environmental education that fosters responsible actions toward wildlife and related natural resources according to the website.

2. List the 3 divisions of the Project WILD Guide.

Answer: Ecological Knowledge, Social and Political Knowledge, Sustaining Fish and Wildlife Populations. (How to Use the Guide, p. ix-x)

3. What do you multiply square miles by to get square kilometers?

Answer: 2.6; found in the metric conversion chart (p. 513)

4. In "A Guide to the Ecosystem Concept" the word pond is used to refer to...?

Answer: Small, shallow, fresh-water bodies of water. (p.483)

5. What are the objectives of For Your Eyes Only?

Answer: 1. observe the environment in which they live, 2. express environmental attitudes, 3. analyze viewpoints on the environment, 4. listen to and respect the right of others to maintain different environmental attitudes. (p. 197)

6. What three forms of evaluation were used for Project WILD?

Answer: Expert Review, Pilot Test and Field Test. (p. 526)

7. Identify an activity addressing biodiversity.

Answer: i.e. Back from the Brink, found in the Topic Index. (p. 498-502)

8. Locate an activity that has the following attributes: Grade= 5-8, Setting=Outdoors, Subject Areas-Science, Math, Environmental Education and Expressive Arts.

Answer: i.e. How Many Bears Can Live in this Forest, p. 23 found in the Skills Index. (p. 495)

9. Name one of the approaches to environmental action as listed in the Taking Action section of the guide.

Answer: Teach it!, Make the Case, Be on the Money, Get Physical, Make Decisions, or Become Legal Eagles pg. 488

10. For the activity Saturday Morning Wildlife Watching on page 184, list the corresponding Conceptual Framework Topic References, and on which page they can be found. What does CP stand for?

Answer: CPII, CPIIC1, CPIIC2, p. 462, Cultural Perspectives