

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS re: REPEAL OF MICHIGAN'S PREVAILING WAGE LAW

1. When does the repeal of the prevailing wage law take effect?

June 6, 2018. The division was able to accept and investigate claims filed prior to June 6, 2021.

2. Must contractors working on pending projects continue to pay the prevailing wage throughout their project?

This is a legal question and the answer depends on the language of the applicable contract. Wage and Hour cannot interpret contracts or provide legal advice. Please consult with legal counsel and the project's contracting agent.

3. Will the Wage and Hour Division continue to maintain prevailing wage rates and/or post such rates on its website for general information purposes?

For informational purposes, the division has posted the last rate schedule issued in June 2018 and links to the Federal Davis- Bacon rates on their website.

4. Does this repeal also apply to federally funded construction projects and prevailing wage rates that are required to be paid according to the Davis-Bacon Act?

No. This repeal only applies to projects that are/were funded or sponsored by the State of Michigan. Contact the U.S. Department of Labor at 866-487-9243 for more information regarding the federal prevailing wage law.
