

Locating Young Adults with a Closed Foster Care Case

Tips and Tools for Locating Individuals with a Closed Case

1. Review the MISACWIS case to identify potential relatives and support people the young adult may have contact with, including last worker, last known phone number, etc.
2. Review last USP and 90 Day Exit Meeting FTM for clues, such as, did individual mention a college or post-secondary training program that could be contacted, did the youth plan to move to another county, etc.
3. Review discharge plan that includes contact information for supportive adult.
4. Call contact numbers noted in the file.
5. Review Bridges to determine if there is an active assistance case.
6. Facebook.
7. Google.
8. Prison/jail search.
9. MDHHS Office of Child Support.
