

Indian Child Welfare Act – Michigan Indian Family Preservation Act Reference Comparison Chart

Public Act 565 of 2012, The Michigan Indian Family Preservation Act (MIFPA),¹ strengthens and clarifies provisions of the federal Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) into Michigan state statute in Chapter 712B.1 to 712B.41. The MIFPA is not intended to replace ICWA, therefore child welfare professionals must be knowledgeable about both laws. The chart below provides a comparison between key provisions of ICWA and MIFPA.²

Topic	ICWA	Michigan Indian Family Preservation Act 2012 Public Act 565
Definition of Indian Child	An unmarried person who is under the age of 18 years and is either: 1. A member of an Indian tribe, or 2. Both eligible for membership in an Indian tribe and is the biological child of a member of the Indian tribe. 25 USC 1903(4)	Removes the requirement of being a biological child of a tribal member. An unmarried person who is under the age of 18 years and is either of the following: 1. A member of an Indian tribe. 2. Eligible for membership in an Indian tribe as determined by that Indian tribe. 712B.3(k)
Exclusive Jurisdiction	An Indian tribe shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any child custody proceeding involving an Indian child who resides or is domiciled within the reservation of the tribe, except where such jurisdiction is otherwise vested in the State by existing Federal law. Where an Indian child is a ward of a tribal court, the Indian tribe shall retain exclusive jurisdiction, notwithstanding the residence or domicile of the child. 25 USC 1911(a)	The same as ICWA with additional language clarifying the tribe retains jurisdiction over wards of the tribal court with any subsequent change in residence or domicile. A tribal ward can be non-Indian. 712B.7(1)
Limited Emergency Jurisdiction – child temporarily off reservation	Nothing in this subchapter shall be construed to prevent the emergency removal of an Indian child who is a resident of or is domiciled on a reservation, but temporarily located off the reservation, from his parent of Indian custodian or the emergency placement of such child in a foster home or institution, under applicable State law in order to prevent imminent physical damage	The same as ICWA with the reference to Michigan Court Rules and sections MCL 712A.13a, 712A.14, and 712A.14a. 712B.7(2)

	or harm to the child. 25 USC 1922
Transfer to Tribal Court & Good Cause Not to Transfer	When there is concurrent jurisdiction and the parent, Indian custodian, or tribe requests transfer to tribal court, the case shall be transferred unless: 1. There is good cause to the contrary; 2. Either parent objects; or 3. The tribal court declines the transfer. 25 USC 1911(b)	The same as ICWA. Additionally, MIFPA defines good cause. 712B.7(3)
Good Cause Not to Transfer	ICWA is silent regarding what constitutes “good cause.”	In determining whether good cause exists to deny the transfer, the court shall not consider the adequacy of the tribe, tribal court or tribal social services. 712B.7(4) The court may determine good cause not to transfer a case to tribal court only if the person opposing the transfer shows by clear and convincing evidence that either of the following applies: (a) The Indian tribe does not have a tribal court. (b) The requirement of the parties or witness to present evidence in tribal court would cause undue hardship to those parties or witnesses that the Indian tribe is unable to mitigate. 712B.7(5)
Child Custody Proceeding	1. Foster care placement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any action removing an Indian child from its parent or Indian custodian for temporary placement in a foster home or institution or the home of a guardian or conservator where the parent or Indian custodian cannot have the child returned upon demand. It does not include a placement based upon an act which, if committed by an adult, would be deemed a crime or upon an award, in a divorce proceeding, of custody to one of the parents. 	MIFPA language mirrors ICWA but also includes guardianships under the Juvenile Code and the Estates and Protected Individuals Code. 712B.3(b)(i)(B)&(C)

Child Custody Proceeding (con't)	2. Termination of parental rights proceeding 3. Pre-adoptive placement 4. Adoptive placement 25 USC 1903(1) The language of ICWA and case law from other states hold that ICWA applies to guardianship cases.
Intervention and Participation in State Court Proceedings	The Indian custodian and tribe have the right to intervene at any point in a state court proceeding involving the foster care placement of or TPR to an Indian child. 25 USC 1911(c)	The same as ICWA. 712B.7(6) MIFPA clarifies that an official tribal representative has the right to participate in any state court proceedings subject to ICWA and MIFPA. 712B.7(7) This person does NOT have to be an attorney. 712B.3(r)
Full Faith and Credit	The United States, every State, every territory or possession of the United States shall give full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any Indian tribe applicable Indian child custody proceedings to the same extent that such entities give full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any other entity. 25 USC 1911(d)	The state shall give full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any Indian tribe applicable to Indian child custody proceedings to the same extent given to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any other entity. 712B.7(8)
Definition of Parent (for the purpose of ICWA and MIFPA)	A biological parent or parents of an Indian child or any Indian person who has lawfully adopted an Indian child, including adoptions under tribal law or custom. It does not include the unwed father where paternity has not been acknowledged or established. 25 USC 1903(9)	The same as ICWA except the definition uses putative father language rather than unwed father. 712B.3(s)
Initial Notice & Reason to Believe a Child is an Indian Child	The petitioning party is required to provide initial notice of an involuntary proceeding in State court to the parents, Indian custodian, and the tribe by registered mail with return receipt requested at least 10 days prior to the first hearing. If the tribe is not known, notice shall be given to the Secretary (Bureau of Indian Affairs) in like manner. No foster care placement or termination of	The same as ICWA with additional requirements and reason to believe defined. 712B.9 At initial contact, the department is required to actively seek to determine whether a child is an Indian child. If the department is unable to determine which tribe a child belongs to, at a minimum, the department shall contact in writing any tribes located in the county where the child is located and the Initial Notice & Reason to Believe a Child is an Indian Child (con't)	parental rights proceeding shall be held until at least 10 days after receipt of notice by the parent or Indian custodian and the tribe or Secretary. The parent, Indian Custodian or tribe may request an additional 20 days to prepare. 25 USC 1912	Secretary. 712B.9(3) Circumstances under which the court, department, or other party has reason to believe a child may be an Indian, includes but is not limited to any of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Any party to the case, Indian tribe, Indian organization, or public or private agency informs the court that child is an Indian child. (b) Any public or state-licensed agency involved in child protection services or family support has discovered information that suggests the child is an Indian child. (c) The child who is the subject of the proceeding gives the court reason to believe s/he is an Indian child. (d) The residence or domicile of the child, his or her biological parents, or the Indian custodian is known by the court to be or is shown to be a predominantly Indian community. (e) An officer of the court involved in the proceeding has knowledge that the child may be an Indian child.

Active Efforts	The party seeking foster care placement or TPR shall satisfy the court active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that these efforts have proved unsuccessful. 25 USC 1912(d) ICWA does not define active efforts.	Party seeking placement must satisfy the court active efforts have been made but with a clear and convincing evidence standard and requirement for expert witness testimony. MIFPA defines active efforts. Active efforts means action to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and to reunify the child with the Indian family. Active efforts require more than a referral to a service without actively engaging the Indian child and family. Active efforts include reasonable efforts as required by title IV-E of the social security act, 42 USC 670 to 679c, and also include doing or addressing all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Engaging the Indian child, child's parents, tribe, extended family members, and individual Indian caregivers through the utilization of culturally appropriate services and in collaboration
